

CLERK: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT: Okay.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Smith would move to amend the bill. (The Smith amendment appears on page 1155 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Senator Smith, you are next, but may I introduced a couple of guests, please, first.

SENATOR SMITH: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Guests of Senator Hefner and Senator Conway, Albert Beermann from South Sioux City, Nebraska, father of Secretary of State Allen Beermann, and Vern Hartung of South Sioux City, Nebraska. Did I see Senator Hefner's brother back there too? Would you folks please stand and be recognized. Thank you. And then Senator Moore has a very, very special friend under the north balcony, Christa Tushar from Denver, Colorado. Would you please stand. Thanks to all of you for visiting us today. Mr. Clerk...or Senator Smith. Thank you.

SENATOR SMITH: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. This is an amendment that would simply...the intent is to harmonize the renewal fee with the original fee that was inadvertently not included in the bill. I would just ask for its adoption.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion? If not, the question is the adoption of the Smith amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. We are voting on the adoption of the Smith amendment. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator Smith's amendment.

PRESIDENT: The Smith amendment is adopted. Do you have anything further on it, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Yes, sir. Senator Moore would move to amend, Mr. President. (The Moore amendment appears on pages 1155-56 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Senator Moore, may I introduce a guest first, please, first. Senator Vard Johnson has a guest under the north balcony. He is Mr. Gip Robertson who is the Deputy Director of
